Azimut 72 is everything you could ask of an Azimut. Italian-made excellence seduces you not only with its contours and taste, but also with the innovation that puts carbon fibre to work in achieving ultimate comfort. The big windows, low-profile gunwales and immense flybridge offer a 360-degree experience of the sea and the light. The sun-pad area in the bow is a corner of paradise. A yielding expanse of cushions on which to soak up the sun's warmth after a plunge in the sea or to relax in the shade of the bimini. More space, more volume and a huge flybridge close to 40 m2 in size are the exceptional features coded in the DNA of Azimut 72 and made possible by the all-carbon superstructure. This is the place to spend wonderful moments dining at sea or enjoying breathtaking sunsets. And when cruising, the dining table in the dinette next to the helm station becomes a sunbathing area caressed by the refreshing sea breeze. The main deck on Azimut 72 is decorated with sand oak and gloss ebony, or alternatively dark oak and gloss fris  sycamore. The carbon fibre superstructure and low-profile gunwales add huge glass surfaces to the generous open space living area. The own...
